

Al Wiseman is an award-winning professional speaker, trainer, and speech coach with A Wiseman Speaks, LLC. Al has been coaching and mentoring adults, middle and high school students for over 25 years. He is passionate about helping individuals and organizations create success through the power of public speaking. He has given over 1,000 speeches and presentations to a variety of organizations. Al is a Certified John Maxwell Speaker/Trainer/Coach, a 3-time Distinguished Toastmaster, a TEDx speaker, and a member of the Georgia Chapter of the National Speakers Association. Al believes that “Developing your public speaking skills is one of the best investments you can make in yourself. Your ability to effectively communicate and present your ideas will have a huge impact on your success in life.” Al’s unique blend of humor and “edutainment” is guaranteed to motivate and entertain your group or organization. Al is the author of “Finding the Funny”, a hilarious collection of humorous stories. In his spare time, he enjoys reading, hiking in the woods and doing yardwork.

Topics 1: Will Speak for Business – How to Use Public Speaking as a Marketing Tool

Summary: This program is for anyone who gives presentations to sell products, get clients, or advance their ideas. You will learn how to use public speaking to promote and grow your business.

Topics 2: How to Become a Confident Public Speaker

Summary: You will learn to overcome the fear of public speaking so that you can realize the many benefits that public speaking can have on your personal & professional life.

Topics 3: Finding the Funny – How to Add Humor to Your Presentation

Summary: Learn tips and techniques on how to liven-up your presentations with humor by learning to find the funny in everyday situations.

Topics 4: Speak Your Way to Greatness (Youth Program)

Summary: This presentation encourages young people (middle/high school) to find their voice and discover the power of public speaking to help them become successful in school, work, and life.