

Richard Hardon is a Business Transformation Expert, specializing in the innovative use of systems, strategies and solutions to help enterprises and individuals get from where they are to where they want to be.

Born and raised in Atlanta, Georgia, Richard received his formal training at Duke University where he received Dual Degrees in Electrical Engineering and Computer Science. After Completing his formal education, he earned his real education from UHK - the University of Hard Knocks.

Richard is most noted for his charismatic personality, a dynamic and interactive training style, and a focus on engaging and entertaining audiences as they learn.

A True Georgia Toastmaster, Richard has served many club, area and district level roles Having Achieved the Highest Distinction of DTM ... Twice... He Speaks in Education Sessions ... Competes in and Facilitates Contests ... and is the first (and last) to the dance floor. He believes in WORKING HARD and PLAYING HARDER.

He has competed in and won more than 30 speech contests including the 2015 Extemporaneous Speaking Champion (Table Topics District 14) and the 2016 International Speech Champion (District 44) culminating with being a Semifinalist in the 2016 World Champion of Public Speaking

Notable Bragging Rights Achievement: First Toastmaster to win a District Level Contest and be recognized as a distinguished Toastmaster in both Districts 14 and District 44 after the split.

Additionally he is an active member of the National Speakers Association Georgia Chapter is the Facilitator for their ProPath – Professional Speakers Academy. A 12 Month intensive curriculum which provides a path for emerging speakers to build a Speaking Business.

On a personal note Richard loves to lift heavy objects, dance the night away and dress like a super hero. Help me welcome our Dancing, Speaking Super Hero ...Richard Hardon..!